My Dear Miss Whitney

I am trying to send you words of sympathy for the great sorrow which has come into your life. I appreciated Miss Manning and know that one of the most beautiful spirits that ever appeared on this earth has passed from our sight. Ever since I have known her, she has been to me the ideal woman.

All this you know better than I do, and more.

When I heard that she had passed away I walked to the Charlesgate but did not go in; it was a consolation to draw near.

You were permitted to enjoy a beautiful soul union with her for many years, and you have my deepest sympathy in this overwhelming bereavement. My daughter joins with me in the hope that you may be sustained by an inward strength from some Power which is more than human.

Sincerely

Anna C. Lee
